DEATH TO YANKEES.

The Cry of the Angry Followers of Gen. Barrundia.

A Strong Force of Police Guarding the United States Legation.

Minister Misner Telegraphs That Peace Will Be Proclaimed and the Troops in Guatemala Disbanded-The Marquis de Leuville's Prospective Duel-Mr. Gilbert's Suit Against D'Ogle Carte-Floods in Hungary-The Belgian Miners' Strike-Prince Bismarck at Hamburg - Argentine Affairs-The Dominion Labor Congress -Foreign News,

CITY OF GAUTEMALA, Sept. 4 .- "Death to Yankees" was the cry of an angry and excited ob that surrounded the United States Legation Tuesday. Threats of stoning the building and mobbing the inmates were freely uttered, but no overt act was committed in the face of the strong force of police that guards the premises day and night. Every visitor is closely questioned before being ad surveillance while inside and until he emerge again. Whenever Mr. Mizner has occasion to leave the legation he is surrounded by a body these are to be superceded by Blue Jackets from the Thetis, who are also to form a cor don of safety about the legation. Sympathy grows for Gen. Barrundla's daughter, who is kept a close prisoner for her attempt upon

The Feeling in Mexico.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 4 .- The public and press here are anxiously awaiting the arrival of American newspapers to ascertain their feeling regarding the killing of Barrundia. Government will take in the matter. The Mexican press generally speaks of the killing of Barrundia by the Guatemalan authorities as an atrocious deed, and believes the United States Government should take action at once for the punishment of his assassins and for an indemnification of his widow and children.

Senator Call's Resolution.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 4. - The pubdicate that Minister Mizner is in some danger friends, have excited concern at the State yesterday, asking him to report at once the tual condition of affairs, and whether he had reason to apprehend personal violence. The untimely fate of Gen. Barrundia and the appeal of his widow to President Harrison for reparation is already bearing fruit. Senator Call of Florida, yesterday introduced a resolution (which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations) . declaring that the murder of Gen. barrundia on the steamer while under the protection of the flag of the the United States, which demanded prompt action by the Government of the United States for the redress of that injury and for security against the recurrence of such cases. Senator Call is thought to have made a mistake in not calling for information in the usual way, instead of assuming that the deed was a murder and an insult to the Government of the United States. But while it is regretted that he did not couch his resolution in different terms, the feeling in the Senate is that the matter should be thoroughly sifted and the committee will undoubtedly act on the resolution. Senator Frye, a member of the Foreign Relations cerning the safety of his money that chance come before that committee he did not care to and for that reason and express any premature opinions. He felt the others he expedited this on, yet i not be fair to criticise the conduct of the case were known. Senator Gray of Delaware before the Senate. He thought, however, that the case merited the very closest official A DISPATCH FROM MIZNER.

Acting Secretary Wharton last night re-ceived a dispatch from Minister Minner at the city of Guatemania, saving that peace would rapidly disbanding. The Minister makes no allusion to the recent shooting affair and Mr. Wharton attaches no importance to the epi-

The Marquis de Leuville's Duel.

LONDON, Sept. 4 .- M. le Marquis de Leuville is certainly about to distinguish himself. He told friends in America when he left that he would demonstrate he was a man of chivalry He is about to keep his promise. He wired his attorney Tuesday night from the Hote he had sinded the vigilance of the London police and was en route to the duelling ground to lay M. le Correspondent of Gil Blas the dust. Whether the police tried very hard to prevent him taking a chance of being shot is doubtful. He has given the author ities some trouble with his eccen es and Scotland Yard probably per mitted his escape with the hope that he might be "slienced" for a time at least. The Gil Blas man left for Paris on Monday night, so that if the fight is "meant" he will doubt less be on hand. It is half expected that he will face the crack French duellist withou misgiving, notwithstanding the little bluff

The Marquis invisted Tuesday that the 'man he was about to make a target of was a low, inscient fellow. Moreover, De Leuville says he did not wait to be challenged. He gave the news-

the Frenchman believed he could beat him he was willing to be beaten—at least to give the other fellow a chance. He had heard that De Bisson had been in many a shooting scrape, but that did not deter him from forcing the fight. Somehow, the cinb gossips have a different version of the affair. They declare this De Bisson-which is probably an allas—was dropped down a flight of stairs by the Marquis when he was accused of getting up a bogus reputation so that he could go on the stage and become a society star, that several ladies to which he had addressed husband, etc. As the time for such that they believe would be only a just recognition quis has been transmogrified.

Late Tuesday night a dispatch went from Scotland Yard to the Chief of Police of Paris stating that De Leuville was alleged to be on French soil for the purpose of fighting a duel vith a citizen of the Republic.

A reporter called at the Marquis de Leuville's chambers last evening and saw Miss Black, the housekeeper. She verified the report that the Marquis had gone to Beulogne, and, she tearfully feared, with murdreous intent. She declared that for the last few nights she had been frightened out of her sleep by the Marquis practicing with his revolver from one end to the other of his drawng-room. All night long she declared that he had been pacing off regulation distances, dropping handkerchiefs, turning at his own heart that reflected in the mirror. The mirror s still in the room. Everything else about the flat is broken. The greatest confusion prevalls throughout the rooms, torn papers and etters litter the floor, there is dust on everything and the look of despondency in the housekeeper's face was reflected in the furniture. Miss Black avers that the Marquis rewrote his will before leaving for Boulegne.

Gilbert vs. D'Oyle Carte.

LONDON, Sept. 4.-The action begun by Mr Gilbert against his former manager, Mr. D'Oyle Carte and Sir Arthur Sullivan, to obtain the appointment of a receiver to determine his share of the takings during the run of the "Gondollers," came up for hearing yesterday. The court room was crowded with expectant spectators, but the proceedings turned out to be entirely devoid of the hum that sparkles in "Trial by Jury." were, however, repaid startling revelations regarding the profits to be derived by successful colabora-tion in this form of popular amusement. Counsel Fischer, for Mr. Gilbert, prosaically recited the grounds of complaint. In this ecitation be claimed that D'Oyle Carte had lagrantly wrote an agreement under which hey had all labored and by which the Savoy Theater had been conducted for years, which was that Carte should render quarterly acounts, giving the balances in all favors, and iquidating all claims of royalties, etc., upon the occasions of these quarterly statements Everything had gone smoothly until April last, when the statement was not at all satisfactory, and Mr. Gilbert, after examining t, made claim for a balance he said was due him. Then, when the time for the July account came around, Carte declined to present it until the differences on the April account were adjusted and agreed to. When this was announced Mr. Gilbert went to law about the matter at once and put his claim in his olicitor's hands. Under this pressure Carte gave up £2,000, but this did not settle the misunderstanding, for Mr. Gilbert claimed another £1,000. The solicitors tried in vain to bring about some settlement between the two gentlemen, but the present action was the only result.

Affidavits read vesterday in court showed that Mr. Gilbert and Sir Arthur Sullivan had each received £90,000 sterling from Carte in the shape of royalties during the past eleven years. Further than this, Mr. Gilbert's affidavit narrated the outside business ventures of Mr. Carte, which include a large hotel that has required £100,000 investment from br. Carte, and a large quantity of other speculations that have demanded almost unlimited resources. Mr. Gilbert declares in his state ment that he became seriously alarmed con Committee, said that as the matter would to be remaining in Mr. Carte's hands The junior counsel for the defendant made semi-humorous speech during which he took occasion to ridicule Mr. Gilbert very much, saying among other things that the famous librettist was evidently as comic in swearing with the gigantic union of capitalists may affidavits as he was in composing operas. This was the closest approach to fun the case taken by Mr. Carte agreeing to pay Mr. Gil-bert the sum of £1,000 to-day, and presenting within three weeks to the complainant a full slackening of the Russian iron industries statement of account up to and including July 4 last. Mr. Gilbert, therefore, won upon

Bismarck at Hamburg.

HAMBURG, Sept. 4.—Prince Bismarck arrived here yesterday. The Frincess Bismarck M. Alexander Chatrian, the well-known reached here the day before and went to French novelist, who wrote in collaboration Frankfort to meet her husband. Baron with M. Emile Erekmann over the nom de bechild's carriage was awaiting him at the depot and drove him to Hamburg. The Prince arrived shortly after 6 o'clock, and the first person to meet him was Carrodi, the Italian painter. A small boy and a little girl pre-sented the Prince with flowers. He is looking well, and he has lost that stern, cold look he bad while in office.

Sounding the French and Italians

Paris, Sept. 4 .- Count Herbert Bismarck is sounding the French Government, the Italian Government and the Vatican in regard to the oposed visit of Prince Bismarck to Rome and Nice during the coming winter. The Count is anxious to learn what the disposition of French and Italian crowds is likely to be toward the great German statesman.

It protested particularly against this immigration because of the immorality and the congestion of the labor market that resulted therefrom. It stated that the opium habit was becoming so common in the West among young white men that it was no longer a cause of horror or even wonder. "Surely," the letter goes on to say, "the Dominion government is not so dead to the future of Canada as to allow these things to continue. Legislation as exclusive as that on the Australian colonies would have himself, declined to buy him for a the desired effect." The feeling among the husband, etc. As the time for the duel is "at organized laboring men in Victoria is strongly of the rights of Canadian workingmen.

Argentine Affairs. BUENOS AYRES, Sept. 4 .- In the Provincial Chamber to-day Senor Fourouge proposed that the payment of cedula coupons be susended for two years. This proposition gave rise to an excited debate and was finally rejected by a sweeping majority.

In the Senate bills were passed providing for the issue of Treasury notes and the emission of cedulas. The Minister stated that the emission of cedulas was cessary in order that the uation in regard to the National Bank, the Mortgage Bank and the municipality might e more quiet. The order for the dispatch of troops to Tucuman has been countermanded. The premiums on gold closed to lay at 136,

Two more arches of the bridge at Carlshe bridge were destroyed. The inhabitants f the town are taking refuge on the hous ops. The dam of Prince Schwarzenberg's reat fish pond at Wittingau has burst.

Laguerre and Boulanger.

PARIS, Sept. 4 .- M. Laguerre, the wellnown Boulangist and member of the Champer of Deputies, in an address to his conanger had held relations with the Count of Paris and Prince Jerome Napoleon. M. aguerre also warmly thanked the Duchess 'Uzses for spending 3,000,000 francs to advance the cause of Gen. Boulanger. In an nterview with a representative of the Siecle en. Boulanger protested that the slieged revelations concerning him recently made in he French press were idle tales. He declared that he did not despair of playing a promi venging himself upon his enemies.

McAlpin, President of the League, who has a walk over for re-elecion, if he wants it-and it is believed he does -was early on hand, as were also Secretary Plerson, Treasurer Kenneth and the member of the Sub-Executive Committee. Speaker Husted, Gen. James R. O'Beirne, ex-Police Justice Chas. A. Flammer of New York, ex-President of the League James P. Foster, Chief Emigration Inspector John E. Milholland, Congressman James P. Dolliver, Hon. J. Sloat Fassett, B. B. Laird and John S. Smith of New York were other prominen leaders who reperted early at headquarters. Mr. Milholiand is looked upon as the leading candidate for President should Mr. McAlpin at the last moment change his mind and de-cline re-election. John S. Smith of New York is a good second for the office, however, and should McAlpin retire from the field there is likely to be a contest for the honor. But at this writing it is the general But at this writing it is the general belief that the old board of officers with a few exceptions is the Executive Committee, will be re-elected with a rush. Delegates are arriving on every train, and if the ratio continues until acon—the hour of meeting, five or six hundred will be on hand or nearly the full representation. The large and beautiful Congress Hail ball-room, where the convention meets, is in readiness for the gathering. At one end of the room near the speaker's stand, a ballot reform booth has been erected under the auspices of the New York press. The new officers will be elected according to the regulations of the new law and the convention given a practical illustration of its working. The Unconditional Club of Albany is expected to attend the convention in a body, as is also the Oneida Battery of Oneida.

At 11 o'clock the Executive Committee went into executive session.

The session of the Executive Committee was devoted to routine work and consisted of consideration of finances, the standing of the league as to numerical strength, admission of new clubs, and notice of those discontinued.

The number of clubs falling cut and the number of new ones added were about equal. It was recommended that a committee of five be appointed by the President to determine which club is winner of the banner offered by the Buffalo Republican League for best prorata attendance at caucuses and meetings during the past year.

Conference. CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 4 .- It is learned this norning that the glass manufacturers, in session at the Auditorium last night, effected a compremise by the appointing of a conference committee to draw up a new plan of action. The conference, after being an hour in session, produced a document which each one present was asked to carefully read and eign if satisfactory. Nearly all present signed sign if satisfactory. Nearly all present signed the agreement, but not without conditions.
It was stipulated by the "'Alckers'' that every manufacturer and company not present be asked to sign the agreement; that a committee of six be appointed to secure these signatures, and that the whole matter be considered at an adjourned meeting to be held at the Auditorium on the 16th last. This was agreed to by the conference.

This board consists of T. W. Carter, W.T. Anderson, John Thyson, of T. W. Carter, W.T. Anderson, John Thyson, E. L. Waiton and Daniel Byrne. They will propare a series of rules and regulations for the government of the Exchange. A pastition was circulated on the floor of the Merchants' Exchange by Phil Schirmer, asking that the Exchange so modify its rules as to allow an afternoon assien to be held, but few signatures were obtained, and it is considered most unlikely that any change will be made. To open the Merchants' Exchange for an afternoon session would necessitate a change in the rules; the members of the Commercial Exchange are opposed to it, and state that it meets with fittle favor in any quarter. Mr. Schirmer is not a member of the Commercial Exchange. The petition has not yet been presented to the Board of Directors of the Merchants' Exchange.

AN ENORMOUS CROWD.

SUCCESSFUL OPENING OF THE SEVENTE ANNUAL EXPOSITION.

The Largest Throng Which Has Ever At tended an Inaugural Night—Everybody Delighted With the Entertainment—Miss Raymond Scores a Hit—The "Post-Dispatch" Press—Disselving Tableaux and Other Features of the Great Show.

In a blaze of giory the seventh annual St. Louis Exposition opened last night. It was such an opening as even this remarkable in-stitution had never known before. Every floor of the vast building from basement to roof was filled with a surging, pushing throng of humanity. It was a good-natured crowd though, and bore the jostling and - bumping in the best of spirits. Everybody went there expecting to find a crowd and to be crowded and jostied. They were not disap-pointed in either particular, but were pre-pared for it and rather reveled in it. Good r and pleasure were pictured on every face. All seemed happy. They cared not whether they were inconvenienced a little themselves as long as the Exposition opening was a success. In fact they would have much disappointed if the crewd was not there to jostle and push them. It was a substantial evidence of a big opening night, and they wanted to have it forcibly impressed upon them. And it was. No one who attended went away with any other impression than that it was the grandest opening the Exposition has ever known, and t has never known an opening which was not a great success.

However, the best evidence of the succes or failure of an entertainment are the gate receipts. There is no going back of these re turns. Last night's receipts were more than 50 per cent greater than on any other opening night of the Exposition since its inception. It is estimated that 16,000 people all told were within the four walls of the vast building last night of the Exposition since its inception. It is estimated that 16,000 people all told were within the four wails of the vast building last night. People began arriving early and the steps of the structure and the side walks in front of the building were filled with people long before the hour for throwing open its doers to the public for the season of 1800. People were impatient to view the hidden beauties of the piace. They also knew what a crowd would attend and they wanted to get into the Music Hall in time to get seats. Their judgment was not in error. Those who came sarly got seats in the Music Hall; those who came late stood up, and many of them had to do their standing outside the hail at that, for it was not long before not only all the seats were taken but all the available standing room as well. Depite the immense number of people packed inside Music Hall; the Art Gallery and all the naves and floors of the building were thronged There was no such thing as one getting off in a corner by himself. He had to remain right in the midst of a crowd. Many people had to walk about all evening, being unable to find seats, but they did it rather than leave the building.

Seated on the stage were the officers and directors of the Exposition and a number of prominent citizens. They had, filed out upon it as the concert commenced. When a few selections had been played by the band Mr. Samuel M. Kennard, President of the Exposition, stepped to the front of the stage and addressed the vast audience before him. He stated that the board of directors had instructed him not to make his address formally opening the present great Exposition over five minutes in length. For the cemfort of those present he would be brief. While expositions is other cities had failed, this enterprise, through the cordial and hearty support of the people and the press, had yearly grown to be a greater success, and besides affording the people instruction and pleasure at a very small cost, had netted to the association a profit every year var

Mayor E. A. Noonan, who was also on the stage, followed President Kennard. After complimenting the officers and directors of the association on their work, he said that one reason of the unparalleled success of the Typosition was that all directors worked for e reason of the unparalleled success of the reposition was that all directors worked for benefit as a whole and did not seek to gratpersonal ambitions. Not only was it a eat amusement, but an educational instite as well. It did much to advance the y's interests, and anything which city's interests, and anything which helped the city was worthy of comhelped the city was worthy of com-mendation. The business men of St. Louis, despite their material concerns, managed to find time to devote to the ad-vancement of such enterprises as the Exposi-tion and to view its treasures and listen to sweet strains of music. Neither were they so busy but what they could welcome to the city the millions of people in the surrounding States and Territories. The speaker wished the President and Board of Directors of the Exposition the grandest success in their noble undertaking.

Exposition the grandest success in their noole undertaking.

Then came Mr. Marcus Bernheimer, Vice-President of the Merchants' Exchange, which body he represented. On their behalf he applauded the management and thanked the people for the success of the Exposition. He congratulated the people on the grand inauguration of the seventh exposition of the city's arts, industries and manufactures. Never before had an exposition outlived more than three returns at most. St. Louis had outlived the title of "Future Great," and was entitled to be known as "Great St. Louis." The census of 1890 would evidence the remarkable increase of 110,000 in the city population in the Dast decade (it really should be more), and the schedule of merchants and manufacturers would show yet greater improvement.

St. Louis new ranked not of the first but manufacturers would show yet greater improvement.

St. Louis now ranked not of the first but the first in many, if not most, of the lines in which she competes, and among her yarious linterests be singled out a few in which she outranked all competition, viz.; in the manufacture and sale of—Tobacco, drugs, shoes, saddlery and harness, wood and willow-ware, granite ware, white lead, shot, linseed ell, stoves, wagons and carriages and furniture. Farming, mining and general machinery, also our breweries, chemical works, car wheel works, our dry goods and hardware jobbers, and yet others too numerous to mention.

Besides which the Merchants' and Cotton Exchange representation, including the millers, pork-packers and grocers, claimed to have done no little towards the advancement of St. Louis to the front rank in providing for and taking care of the great and diversified interests which surround the city and which look to them for facility in transaction of business.

A feature of the Exposition which created more talk than any other exhibit was the printing press of the Post-Disparch in the basement asar the southeast corner and just opposite the fish tank. It is a modern Hoeperfecting press, with all the latest improvements and has capacity to print, cut and fold 12,000 eight-page papers per hour. Last aight the Post-Disparch Exposition EchoEs, an independent four-page edition of this paper issued from the Exposition building for free distribution, made its appearance and the copies of it were grabbed uplike hot cakes. It is run off on the Post-Disparch press at the Exposition Building, and in the initial issue was published the music of "The Dude's March," Gilmore's great hit, which is now the craze all over the country. Every day the complete programme of the cencert for the day will appear in the Post-Disparch Exposition EchoEs and it will also contain Exposition news and other interesting items and gossip. Cook, charged with fraud in three cases, was discharged on hearing in Judge and President of the Granite Mountain Mining Campbell's Court this morning, but a Co., will not accept the nomination, even if it minutes later another was issued against him charging him with embezziement. The case brings to light a new way of making money. M. O. King charged Cook with receiving a typewriter worth $95, on ten days' trial, saying he was a stenographer in the office of S. H. Clark and wanted a new machine. C. L. Albiets claims he left a typewriter with him and borrowed $50 on it. He says he discovered later that Cook did not own the machine. A. C. Albright stated that Cook got two typewriters worth $120 from him on trial and paid $50 on them and then falled to return the machines or pay for them. The charge of fraud was made in each case. Judge Campbell said the cases could not stand as the property still belonged to the parties, and that they could take them wherever they found them. ## BUTLER TO WITHDRAW.

THAT IS WHAT NINTH DISTRICT DEMO-CRATIC POLITICIANS SAY TO-DAY.

hoel Director James Bannerman Will Not Run, but Promises to Name a Democrat Who Will — Congressman Frank's Position - The National Reform Convention-Political Matters.

It is about settled that Jim Butler will soon cease to be a candidate for Congress in the Ninth District. Prominent Democrats disposed to be friendly to the Butlers have been at work to get the ambitions James off the track, and this morning the announcement went along the line that he would not demand the nomination, as many had been led to be lieve. The Democrats who have been working on this matter have been proceeding very carefully to avoid giving any offense to the City Attorney or his father. have employed the argument be better served if Mr. Butler would not ask Democrats said that unless Butler experienced a sudden change of feeling he would not ask the nomination. With Butler out of the race the politicians say that there will be no trouble getting candidates to consent to take the nomination. To-day the politicians are talking strongly for A. B. Ewing, Seth W. Cobb and Marcus Bernhelmer and the latter isV ice-President of the Merchants' Exchange and a well-to-do merchant. Some of the leaders who are urging him say that he will not refuse the nomina- the reform parties tion if it is tendered him, and the same is understood to be the case with Mr. Cobb.

A warrant was issued against John Green this moral Reform party, as the delegates must have made her feel that the sympathy of her audience was with her. If any doubt on that score was left in her mind it was certainly dispelled when she played her opening prefude, for nearly everybody in the wast Music Hall Joined in applauding. A mest general clapping of hands forced her to respond to an encore sfer her first selection, and she had to respond to an encore after her first selection, and she had to respond to an encore after her first selection, and she had to respond to an encore after her first selection, and she had to respond to an encore after her first selection, and she had to respond to an encore again on her second appearance. She played the negre melody, "Hear Dem Bells," in response to the demands of the people, in a way which made all who were present actually believe that they did hear them. Miss Raymond only plays here five more days, leaving when Gilmore arrives.

When the dissolving tableaux were given on the stage of the Rusic Hall the audience went wild. The people were totally unprepared for so gorgeous and magnifecent a sight.

Speeches were made by the chairman and Rev. Dr. Livingstone of Montana in favor of the declaration of principles of the new move-ment. Dr. Livingstone spoke particularly on "Woman's Suffrage" and declared that the softer sex had as much right to vote as the men. He said that the only way to purify elections was to give the women a voice in them.

THE PLATFORM.

The Committee on Resolutions, of which Hiram J. Maine of Indiana is chairman, and J. F. Robertson of Oregon, Secretary, remained out until 2 o'clock this after mained out until 2 o'clock this afternoon, when it presented a platform containing twenty-one planks.
It declares for prohibition, free colnage, tariff reform, the abolition of national banks, abolition of trusts, woman's suffrage and other reforms. The convention took a recess shortly before the committee concluded its report until 3 o'clock, Some of the delayates are atrongly onof the delegates are strongly op-posed to the prohibition plank, but the prohibitionists in the convention say they will have that or nothing. Several of the del-egates said this morning that the convention could never agree on a platform on which all the reform parties, including the Labor and Greenbackers, could stand.

Democratic Factions in Carondelet.

The Republicans in the Thirteenth Ward have concluded to furnish Carondelet with some excitement. The Brennans and the some excitement. The Brennans and the Murphys, who have struggled for years for supremacy, are, it is claimed, getting ready for another outbreak. The Brennanites have organized a club and have given it out that it is for the sake of barmonizing the parely interests in the ward. The opposition has not only refused to go in the organization, but has unde arrangements to meet this evening at St. Bonaface's Hall to organize a club which will work independent of the Brennan aggregation. Carondelet Democrats say the indications point to a lively struggle between the two clubs.

Mr. McEntyre, in speaking of the obstructing "regulation," said:
"When I learned of that regulation which is the second of the negligence of its members. Mr. McEntyre took the view of sec. 7 of rule 139 that others have taken, viz.: that it was a regulation, not a rule, and could be changed without giving a month's notice of an intention to change. This view was accepted by the committee, and, acting on that belief, the following report was submitted by Mr. McEntyre and adopted by the committee for presentation to the board.

The undersigned, your Cemmittee on Supplies, beg leave to submit for your approval as is required by rule 65 A, the fellowing rules and regulations formulated by your committee under anthority of said rule touching the use and care of free text books.

THE Republicans are a long way "off" this year.

How nor to manage public schools has been strikingly and instructively illustrated in St. Louis this week.

THE enthusiasm of the throng in the Exposition last night was only equaled by the merit of the great show. It was a genuine St. Louis Exposition "send off."

THERE is a prospect of a split in the Republican party of Texas, which indicates that there will be a lively scramble among the Texas Republican candidates for the neglected by St. Louis. This city has the amallest State vote on record.

JEFFERSON'S Manual, which is inconporated in the rules, says: "It is the duty of the House, and more particularly of the Speaker, to interfere immediately and not to permit expressions to go un "noticed which may give ground of com-'plaint to the other House." But while Republican Congressman from Ohio in the House on Tuesday denounced the action of the Senate on the force bill, and denounced Senator QUAY by name as a Judas Iscariot and a bribed traitor to his party, and said that his silence under charges of felonious treasury looting was a confession of guilt, not one Republican member called him to order, and the Republican Speaker pro tem. let him proceed uninterrupted.

The delivery of this speech, as soon as Speaker REED had started for Maine and Burrows was elected Speaker pro tem., savors of pre-arrangement, and the refusal of any Republican to interfere or raise a point of order puts the scene unmistakably in the light of a studied insult from the Speaker's friends to the Senate and its Republican majority. Such hostilities between two houses of different polities would be a disgrace to Congress. Between two Republican houses, they re veal not only bitter internal feuds on the Republican side, but the disorderly rufflanism which is naturally fostered by REED's autocratic rule in the House.

Those who wait to make one trip do for Fair and Exposition both are apt to find that they have overtasked themselves.

THE Central American imbroglio arouses little interest in this city, but this very fact is the proof that a fine opportunity to extend her trade has been shortest water route to the ports of Central America of any large commercial and manufacturing center, but the failure to develop Mississippi transportation to its highest efficiency has prevented the merchants and manufacturers from realizing the full benefits of their opportunities.

When the Mississippi is given its proper When the Mississippi is given its proper importance as an outlet for Mexican, Central and South American trade a vast field of profitable enterprise will be opened to St. Louis.

I have heard these expressions time and again, and only te-day received a letter from one of Mrs. W.'s followers, in which this statement is made. I hand is to you for publication. We are assured from our experience and the expressions of a majerity of the ministry, that such people and their practices work immeausrable mischief to the cause of true religion. From our knowledge of medicine, which is simply a refex of the opinion of the whole medical profession, we know that the psychical, physical and moral results of the abnormal manifestations attending the meetings of Mrs. Woodworth are in a very high degree harmful, not enjy to the present, but to future generations. We, therefore, have a right as representatives of a noble profession, which has to do not only with the treatment, but also with the prevention of disease and the conservation of the public health, to honestly inquire into a mischief which is so widespread, and which we believe to be of such vital importance to the healths and homes of the people. This is a subject which should interest every man of family, who has loved once to care for besides himself.

The injury which is being inflicted is not a palpable one—that is manifest to all, a physical wound or injury that all can see, but it is a subject which is not apparent wound or injury that all can see, but it is a subject which is being inflicted is not a palpable one—that is manifest to all, a physical wound or injury that all can see, but it is a subject which is being inflicted is not a palpable one—that is manifest to all, a physical wound or injury that all can see, but it is a subject with the views of the church of God, then her meeting can and should be stopped; and this without any interference of the State with religion. We certainly ought to have a right to honesity, and by regular process of law to inquire into this as a commendable measure for the public good, without process

ANOTHER HOUSE SCENF.

In times of the hottest political excitement, when the two houses of Congress were fighting each other under different party banners, there was never such as scene as was presented in the House on Tuesday. Neither branch of Congress ever before so far ignored its own rules of order, or so far forgot the courtest due to the co-ordinate body as to permit its members to denounce by name the members of the other without even being called to linquiry as te the Power She is Using—

WORTHY OF CONSIDERATION.

Dr. Hermann, in speaking about Mrs. Woodworth and the demonstrations at the Gespel tent, said to-day;

'I have not attended any of the meetings and therefore can not personally give any opinion, but the opinions of Dr. Adams are worthy of the most careful censideration, and should be received with the respect which is due his standing as a physician.'

The Rev. B. M. Messick, pastor of the St. John's Methodist Church, was asked for his opinion on the Woodworth meetings, as he mentioned them in last Sunday's sermen in no encouraging manner. He said:

"I desire to be entirely nea-committal on the subject, but I will say that I do not think that the church should be held responsible for such things. It has nething to do with them at all. I do not desire to get mixed up in this thing, but that is my opinion."

Among the cures claimed by Mrs. Woodworth and her friends, the case of Mrs. Elizabeth Hammell is a widow in very poor circumstances, and occupies one room in the frame building known as 1808 South Thirteenth street. Her husband died eight years ago, leaving her with four children and no money. The oldest of these is now workin for Jacobe Bros. on Seventh street and Lucas avenue, the youngest is at home and the other two have been immates of the Orphans' Home at Warrenton, Mo. Mrs. Hammell has earned a livelihood for herself and child by washing, and has a reputation, in the neighborhood in which she resides, of being industrious and found her hard at work washing in the little room on the second floor whelp is her home. When questioned about her case, she said:

Representative Kennedy's stack on the Senate as a whole and Senator Quay in particular late yesterday afternoon. Several consultations have been held, but no plan of action has been agreed upon. A prominent Senator, familiar with parliamentary precedents and practices, when saked what would be the proper course to be pursued, if it was decided to do anything, said that if, after a time, the House took no action, the Senate should pass a resolution controous in tone calling the attention of the House to the unparliamentary proceeding and then leave it to deal with the question as it saw if. But this action will depend on the manner in which the knowledge of the delivery speech reached the Senate. Mr. Kennedy's remarks do not appear in today's Congressional Record, the reporter noting that they "are withheld for revision." Unless they come before the Senate in the Record or some other authoritative way, it may be that nothing will be done. Senator Quay knew nothing of the delivery of the speech until this morning and after his arrival at the Senate he conferred with several of his colleagues, spending considerable time with Senator Ingalis. He said to a reporter that he had not determined what course of action to pursue. He had under consideration the making of a statement under the rule governing questions of personal privilege, but he was not fully decided what to do.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4 .- The special House Wishington, Sept. 4.—The special House committee investigating the charge against Commissioner of Pensions Ramm met this morning to continue the investigation, but ewing to the absence of Messrs. Cooper and Goodnight (Democrats) were unable to do so, as Mr. Lewis, the only member of the minority, objected to proceed without one of his colleagues being present. Judge Wilson, Mr. Lemon's atterney, said that he was very anxious to have the investigation proceeded with but was not willing to do so unless Mr. Cooper was present, as he (Mr. Cooper) has been making oharges through the press against Mr. Lemon. He requested the committee to subpcens Mr. Cooper so that he could put him on the stand and have him any were some of the charges he had made against Mr. Lemon. Mr. Sawyer offered a resolution, which was agreed to, providing for the adjournment of the committee until Monday, heat, when the hearing will, be continued without unnecessary delay, and that Mr. Cooper be notified of this action of the committee and requested to have his with the manufacturers are beginning to blacklist the ma ommittee investigating the charge against Prominent Republicans came forward and urged that the appointse was not a Republican and the nomination was suspended. Edward K. Miller was then appointed and confirmed. A short time ago he died, and the old contest is renewed with Prof. Love, Mr. Crofton and the bondsman who has been acting as Postmaster. It is believed that Mr. Wansamaker has again selected Mr. Crofton, Mr. Love's application and indorsement being late getting here.

Mr. Cummings of New York, rising to a question of privilege, protested against his 'blacklisting' by the famous Cannon resolution. The gentleman who had offered the resolutions had made unjust imputations and in making these imputations he had falsified the regord and blacklisted himself. He then proceeded to make an attack upon Mr. Camon. In support of his resolution the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. Cannon), had sepended to the Record. The gentleman from lowa (Mr. Henderson), had seconded the gentleman from Illinois and had used the word 'sneak.' There had been some aneaking done as the Record indicated. The Record showed that the Speaker had refused to the House the list of names of the absentees. Fancy the great Chairman of the great Committee on Appropriations, the successor of Samuel J. Randall, enaching to the clork's desk and obtaining surregitiously a list of members that had been refused to the House, and upon this list basing a false accusation against his fellow members, He then proceeded to arraign the Speaker.

Crabtree, in a statement given last Tuesday, said he had a fight with the officer in the yard and shot him during the struggle when he attempted to strike him with his club. After shooting him, Crabtree says, he waked to Selma Station, a few miles west, and there caught a freight train on which he rode to Salem, Mo., where he was acquainted with a Mr. Ross, whose daughter he knew well in this city. He arrived in Salem, Thursday night and Ross took him in for the night. Between Monday and Thursday night the police here found that Crabtree had friends in Salem and thus Sheriff of that village was instructed to arrest Crabtree if found. They cailed on Mr. Ross at midnight and caught Crabtree in bed. He was brought back to this city by Officer Viehle and taken to Wilmer's residence, where he was positively identified by the wounded officer. taken to Wilmer's residence, where he was positively identified by the wounded officer. He was then placed in jall to await the result of the injuries.

The bullet struck Wilmer in the back, and going through the spinal column penetrated the larger organs. From the moment he was shot until his death Wilmer suffered intense agonies, and a few days after the wound was inflicted paralysis set in from the point of the wound down to his toes. It was seen that the spinal cord was affected and Doctors Mudd and Brokaw decided to try and relieve him and find the bullet. Yesterday they removed two sections of the veterbree and exposed the spinal cord which showed an abrasion, the cause of the paralysis. They removed several pleces of bone bearing upon it and closed the wound. He was so low last night that it was deemed advisable to secure an ante-mortem statement, and this morning Crabtree was taken to the Hospital by Capt. Campbell, Officer Viehle and Deputy Sheriff Lauff. Ocroner Frank waited in his office for a stenographer some time, to take him out to the hospital with him, and James Johnson, the court reporter, made his appearance just as a telephone message announced Wilmer's death. Crabtree was taken back to the Four Ceurts and locked up. He seemed greatly agitated on the return trip, and though he said nothing the nervous play of his hands showed plainly his thoughts were far from tranquil.

A post-mortem examination will be made of Wilmer's body this afternoon to determine the course of the bullet and the effect of the surgical operation performed last night.

Louis H. Wilmer was 24 years of age, married, and leaves a wife and one child. He was a strong, robust man and had been on the force but fifteen months. In that time he had won the esteem and friendship of all his brother officers. He was a member of twayne Lodge, Keights of Honor, who take charge of his remains, and also a member of the Folice Relief Association.

counties, the most direct routes to them and the times of dispatch. Not only must they memorize Missouri, but all the surrounding States, that they may be able to distribute letters accurately for dispatch to their destinations. To insure efficiency clerks are examined at irregular intervals. Good, accurate-men are called upon to stand examinations from time time, as well as the less efficient. During August four clerks were examined as to their knowledge of several States, and they made average per cents of over 97. One clerk was within a few tenths of perfect, and his errors were believed to be chargable to the hand and not to the brain.

The lowest per cent allowed is 95. If a clerk's distribution is found to be imperfect he is called up for examination. Should he show by properly distributing the cards given him that he knows how to do the work, he is warned that carclessness in the future will eause his reduction. If, on examination, he falls to get 95 per cent, showing that he is ignorant, he is called upon to stand an examination in competition with funior clerks. If one of the latter gains a higher percentage than he gains the junior is given his place and he is reduced.

This system of examinations compels the men to study and keep familiar with the offices, routes and times of dispatch. It insures the most perfect work.

What folly it would be to cut grass with a pair of scissors! Yet peo-ple do equally silly things every day. Modern progress has grown up from the hooked sickle to the swinging scythe and thence to the lawn mower. So don't use scissors!

But do you use SAPOLIO? If you don't you are as much behind the age as if you cut grass with a dinner knife. Once there were no scaps. Then one scap served all purposes. Now the sensible folks use one scap in the toilet, another in the tub, one scap in the stables, and SAPOLIO for all scouring and house-cleaning.

THE BELLES OF SARATOGA

WHO THEY ARE AND HOW THEY ARRAY THEMSELVES.

A Brooklyn Belle and a Philadelphia -Mrs. George H. Wheelock, Mrs. W. W. Lyles and Mrs. Bhedes Play the Tegether - Miss Meresial Is the plazzas and the hops for the women and the race course and the fare tables for the men Saratoga would be a dull place. The omen change their costumes three, four and five times a day, and seem to try to make the hotel plazzas vie with the most ar tistically arranged milliners' or modistes' windows.

There is more chance here for a display of ostumes than at any other summer resort. then again for the races later on; after the races they appear in another costume to go driving and in the evening they wear still another for exhibition. The young girls here this eason affect a sweet simplicity in their array. They wear short-waisted dresses with scanty skirts and sashes tied up under their arms. The material spared from the skirt is apparently put into the sleeves, which are very large and full. These simple gowns are made of muslin, China silk, or crepe de chine, and are quaint and charming in effect. To their elaborate costumes of silk and lace, with their gorgeous effects. This is rather a sen sible arrangement because the young girls the good times dancing and dri while the older ones sit around the hetel plazzas and the sides of the ball-room.

Among the young people, one who has caused somewhat of a sensation here is Miss Henrietta W. Dall. She is a very pretty girl with sparkling blue eyes, elear complexion and light brown hair. She is of medium height, with a slender though well-rounded and graceful figure, Miss Dail is one of the best dancers in Saratoga this season. She has a sweet and gracelous manner and is thoroughly unspoiled by the attention she has received. This is at Saratoga. She is very young and full of life. As one of her admirers recently expressed it, "She seems constantly bubbling over with fun." Miss Dail is a Brooklyn girl. Her father lives on Sixth avence, near Garfield place, and is a wealthy merchant. The costumes she wears are very artistic. Among them may be mentioned one of Nile green silk with an overdress of crepe de chine, having a border of violets around the bottom of the skirt and the edge of the costumes she wears are very artistic. Amons them may be mentioned one of Nile green silk with an overdress of crepe de chine, having a border of violets around the bottom of the skirt and the edge of the low-cut corsage. Another of pink mousseline de sole, with a garniture of morning glories, was very becoming to Miss Dail's style of beauty.

Each hotel, of course, claims to have the belle of Saratoga. The belle at the United States is Miss Anita Berwind. She is the daughter of the wealthy iron merchant of that name in Philadelphia. She is a petite blond, young and very pretty. Miss Berwind dances like a fairy and is, of course, in great demand at the hops. She has three things in her fayor: She is pretty, clever and her father is very wealthy. She is probably the weathless belle at the Springs. Among her admirers are Walter P. Bliss, the son of George Bliss, Vice-President Morton's partner, and Mr. Robert L. Cutting, Jr., of New York. Miss Dmfy, the daughter of W. R. Duffy, one the of weathless men of Rochester, is the belle of the Grand Union. Miss Duffe is extremely popular with the young men at the Union in spite of the fact that she does not favor them very much at the hops. She is a girl of medium height, slight in figure and very stylish. Her eyes are of ARIGHT BLUE and her hair chestnut color. She is passionately found of music, plays and sings, is a good artist, and can speak several languages fuently. She enjoys riding and is usually seen in the afternoon on the avenue with her father and her brother.

It is worth a visit to Saratoga to see the driving on Union avenue every fine afternoon. The avenue is a tandem. She also has a pair of high-stepping bays harnessed to a very hundsome Teart, and she handles the reins with such skill that many vateran drivers might easily take points from her. Her usual companion is her father. In fact, it locks as hough her parents do not mean to give her a chance to follow the example of her sister, for sither her mother or her father is constantly in attendence upon h conversationalist, and very tond of teasing the young men who attend her on the plazza. Mrs. George Hankins, the wife of George Hankins of Chicago, drives a very handsome Hankins, too, is very fond of wearing a black costume with yellow trimmings. Her husband owns a large racing stable, and black and yellow are race and black and yellow are seen together at the race seach day are Mrs. George H. Wheelock, Mrs. W. W. Lyles and Mrs. Rhodes. They are aligned to dress. Men togate to dress. Men come to play the race from the manual proposed to their being together so much they have been called ways full of fun, and on account of their being together so much they have been called with the proposed to their being together so much they have been called with the proposed to their being together so much they have been called with the proposed to their being together so much they have been called with the proposed to their being together so much they have been called with the proposed to their being together so much they have been called with the proposed to their being together so much they have been called with the proposed to their being together so much they have been called with the proposed to the proposed to their being together so much they have been called with the proposed to the proposed often in the Duchess' novels. She has a fresh, rosy complexion, big gray eyes fringed with long, dark, drooping lashes, and hair of so dark a brown that it looks like black. She is causing quite a sensation here by the number of elegant eostumes she has a worn. Many of them she brought back with har from Europe in the spring. Mrs. Wheeleck tends all the hops, and has not been wearing the same costume twice. One of the handsomest of these is a peach blossom silk with an overdress of white crepe de china and low corsage fastened at the shoulders with dismond crescents. Mrs. Wheeleck is a very graceful dancer, and exhibits her handsome ostumes to great advantage. Her driving phaeton is a very stylish one, and is drawn by a handsome bay borse, which selection content of the prettiest women on the grand stand. She is tail, slender and graceful, with pretty blue eyes, brown hair and a pink and white complexion. She always dresses in excellent taste and frequently drives with Mrs. Wheeleck in the afternoon. One of Mrs. Lyle's fayorite costumes is a lilac China silk with which way way and a succellent taste and frequently drives with Mrs. Wheeleck in the afternoon. excellent taste and frequently drives with Mrs. Wheelock in the afternoon. One of Mrs. Lyle's favorite costumes is a lilac China siik, with which she wears a large hat covered with clusters of lilac.

Mrs. Rhodes is from New York. She is a widow and has with her her son, Jackson, a boy of 16. She is a bright, vivacious little woman, and seems to be the life of the tric. After the three bave decided which horse they will back in the race, Jackson takes the money and goes dewn to the ring to get the best odds he can procure against them. It is fun to watch the tric when they have a ticket on the winning horse. Mrs. Lyles snaps her fingers as they come up the stretch. Mrs. Wheelock seems to be riding an imaginary winner and working the same way the jockey does, and Mrs. Rhodes laughs and calls out the name of her favorite horse.

EAST ST. LOUIS.

THE CITY COUNCIL HOLDS A STORMY SPECIAL SESSION.

An Effort to Straighten Out a Street Tangle Proves Ineffectual-A Tramp Stened to Death-Pioneer Day in Belleville Proves a Great Success—An Interesting Diverce

Charles Loften, the stranger who was found ving on the ground in the Cairo Short Line yards yesterday by Officer Mansfield and was taken to police headquarters, died this morning at the station. His life was prolonged for some sime after the police expected the end to ome, his sufferings not being ended until 2 o'clock a. m. He was thought to be dying when he was brought to the station yesterday, but he lingered and clung to life with the tenacity of a strong constitution. Coroner Woods held an inquest and autopsy on the body, at which the fact was disclosed that the primary cause of the man's death was starvation. The state of the stomach showed that he had had no food fer perhaps three or four days. Exposure had brought en congestion, which would have killed a man in his weakened state, and with a more frail constitution, in much less time. Why the man came to corpus proceedings in the East St. Louis, and how he got here is not this afternoon to recover of his three children, Ida R., Preston R. and Florence Adele Papin aged 9, 7 and 3 known, though it is reasonable to suppose known, though it is reasonable to suppose that he came in on a Cairo Short Line freight train. He had no effects that would show his address or give any idea as to where he came from. The body awaits identification at Kurrus' undertaking establishment on Main street.

F. W. Schaffer commenced suit yesterday in the City Court against his former employer, F. M. Puester, for $1,000 for trespass, claiming that the defendant assaulted him in his establishment on Broadway. Several city cases involving charges of disturbing the peace and assault and battery, to be tried in the police courts, have grown out of the difficulty.

The East St. Louis Election Commissioners,

Yesterday was Pioneers' Day at the Fair. Their meeting was held in the afternoon under the trees in the open air. Rev. C. T under the trees in the open air. Rev. C. T. Phillips opened the meeting with prayer. Officers were elected as follows: Amos Thompson, President; James Afficek, Vice-President; L. D. Turner, Secretary; Joseph Penn, Master of Ceremonies. S. C. Smiley, President of the Fair Association delivered the address of welcome, and was replied to by E. W. West. Cel. John Thomas, Judge John B. Hay, Gen. W. H. Powell and Amos Thompson alse addressed the meeting. Two good races were contested during the afternoon. The first, a 3-year-eld trot, was won by Orient, with Don Fernando, second, and Dela Stanley, third. The second race, a half-mile run for horses of all ages; was won by Minsie Winton, Charles Ford, second; Mary Anderson, third.

win for horses of all ages; was won by Minnie Winton, Charles Ford, second; Mary Andersen, third.

Rudolph O. Schlenk brought sult to-day in the Circuit Court against Louisa Schlenk for divorce. They were married on the 12th of April last, but lived together only two months. On the 11th of July, the plaintiff alleges in his petition, he left his wife, having discovered that she was guilty of adultery. Mrs. Mary Z. Foulks brought suit for a diverce from her husband, Charles Foulks, on the grounds of desertion. The couple were married in St. Louis in 1872, and lived together until 1887. The docket for the September term will close to-morrow. Up to date 12t new gases have been docketed.

Fred. Joerg, she employe of the City Water Co., fell dead yesterday from a stroke of apoplexy. Coroner Woods held an inquest, and is of the opinion that the apoplectic stroke was induced by excitement and overheating. Joerg was at work uptown when a fire alarm was sounded and he rode in a great hurry to the Water-works pump-house. When he arrived there he complained of a feeling of alokness and went home. He had been at home but a short time when he dropped dead. He was 33 years old and had a wife and four children.

night he began to fail, and at 9 o'clock he died.

The City Council held a special meeting yesterday for the purpose of strengthesing out the North Illinois street bridge tangle. The session was stormy, as of late all the Connell meetings have been. After roll call a recess was taken and the Council viewed the site of the proposed structure. Upon reconvening it was decided to have a committee settle the matter by arrangement with Mr. Assettle the matter than Cronst, and the Mr. Assettle the matter than the contractor. Grain and Flour.

Wheat—The market was pumped up $6c this morning, but there was not much buil an intustant excited. All bids were quietly, but readily met, and after holding back for a while the home market declined and following outside speculative cenders, outside of the continued small receipts here and, in fact, at all winter wheat points, there was nothing in sight to buil on. In the Northwest the weather was clearing and there were not so many eron complaints from that section, but there was a report that Northwestern elevators would reduce prices in the country le and the receipts at Minneapolis were large—256 cars—though, strange to say, very light at Duluth. Cables told of duil and declining markets, and she weather, and export clearances. The second and closing cables were weak at the sarly decline, but the break on this side seemed to have exhausted itself, and with sharp rallies elsewhere, there was a recovery here of 1c, but this was the last spurt of the day and it was of the soid water description—bang, far, evanorate. A report of a 1.500,000 failure in New York excited an uneasy feeling regarding financial affairs. Every other market went to tumbling and like break took place here. From this there was not much recovery and at close Dec. was feel and May Hac below yesterday. Dec. person at 11,001 and sold at 31,002, off te $1,024, down of the contract of Oats-Futures were dull and weakened along with all the other markets. Dec. sold at 32½cand May at 34%c to 35½c. Sport Grades were dull and weak. No. 2 was saisable to the order trade at 33c for either this or East side, but the only sale was of 1 car this side at 33c. For No. 3 in M. Et. L. and E. side 31½c was bid. SAMPLES-Offerings were over plensiful and the market was very dull. Buyers held off which, with the decline in futures, caused prices to weaken 1,24½c. At the close a large number of cars were held over until to-morrow. receivers being unable to sell at a satisfactory figure. Sales-1 car No. 4 white at 32½c. Hay and Millfeed.

Bran—Steadler and a better demand, buyers offering 686 for sacked on E. trk. Sales—2 cars bulk at country point at 60c, 1 sacked trk this side at 67c, 10 oo E. trk at 68c, 1 fancy middling E. trk at 90c.

Hay—Receipts were only fair and the market was steady for choice grades of timothy and prairie. Medium grads were dull owing to the poor shipping demand. Only the very best grades wanted by the local trades and their description command full prices. Sales—2 cars prime prairie at $5, 1 choice at $9.50. 2 fancy at $10.5 cars prime timothy at $10.7 do at $1.50.5 c strictly prime at $11, 2 choice at $12, 2 do at $12.50. 2 fancy at $13.2 do at $13.50. 2 gilt edge at $14; also 1 car poor mixed timethy at $8. Straw—Sales 1 car wheat straw this side at $5.25 per ton.

Provisions.

The market was easier in tone, though spot sellers, particularly of bacon, were striving to realize ateady rates and generally held stiffly. The order demand was right good for meats, and among the saies were 25,000 lbs loose bacon c'ribs at 6.07kpc f. o. b. The depression in all other markets had a repressive effect upon buyers of round lots and lower prices generally, failed to 'temps them,' though a good day's business was reported. Yesterday afternoon a car 14-b sweet-pickled hams, a car each winter dry sait longs and c'ribs and a car fully-cured, 50\(^{1}\text{bis}\) be 'ribs sold to arrive on p. t. and 2 cars 50-day 50 lb o'r under c'ribs at 5.40c E. side To-day, a car 40-day 55 lb dry sait c'ribs sold at 5.30c a car cured 55 lb do at 5.45c (for more 5.42kc asked) and a car fully-cured 55-lb shorts at 5.65c, c and L, besides 10 cars 50-day 68-lb c'ribs East sit of the control of the contro

[The Post- Dispatch quetations are for lots in first hands unless stated otherwise. On orders higher.] hands unless stated otherwise. Un orders higher, General duthess prevailed on the street this morning, especially in poulity, dealers to a man saying the market has not been so dull for a long time—but few seem to be wanted. The game market was easy under larger receipts. A change to easier prices is looked for soon in butter. Eggs were very slow sale. Cabbage was lower, while most of the home-grown truck was easy in price. Tomatoes, however, were drm. Grapes were off a little. Watermeions were lower.

Apples—Receipts were freer, but the greater part conclance as hereiofore, undestrable fruit, wormy, specked, stung, windfalls, etc., which bring $122.1.50, according to condition. Good varieties that are smooth and well packed and suitable for eating are in good steady request at all the way from $1.750 \( 2.50\), while fancy maiden blush bring $3.93.25. A well-informed Exchange member: "I am of the opinion that the wheat operators of Minneapolis and Duluth markets have sold themselves into a hole and are now moving heaven and earth to depress prices, with a view of covering short sales. They have been educated to believe that the wheat crop of Minnesota and the Dakotas will prove to be a fair average crop and have apparently shut their eyes to the true condition of the wheat crop, which, in my opinion, will not prove to be ever 75,000,000 bu. The crop movement is likely to be unusually light during September, and October will see prices advance, so as to enable buyers to pay about $1 per but at interior stations.

and rubsen 35 per cent better than last year's very short crop; potatoss, which are a very important crop in Germany, are 11 per cent worse than last year. From Hungary exagerated estimates continue to be made of the wheat crop, so that is will be wise to await the official figures, which will shortly be published. Houmanis has reaped a large crop of very fair quality, but in Russia yield has proved more and more disappointing, both in quantity and quality, more particularly perhaps in the latter.

Chicago Market Letters.

Private Wire J. P. Grier.

CHICAGO, Fept. 4.—The opening of wheat was fairly steady. Northwest advices were bullish, but foreign were week and lower. Some buying by a prominent local bull caused a firm feeling and an advance of about I cent. say from $1.03 to $1.03 th.

On the financial advices from New York of further troubles in Boston, he became a seller and sold off the market to $1.01 to Dec. The closing is steady at $1.02 th.

The condition of crops in the Northwest have not improved, but the export demand is light, about $0.00 to hipments from the seaboard advised, but $0.00 to hipments from the seaboard advised, but $0.00 to hipments from the seaboard advised, but $0.00 to hipment from the seaboard advised, with the present doubtful condition of the money market it is difficult to guess what the near future will do. The decline has been considerable and depressed spots, we think it safe to buy for moderate profits.

YELLOW PINE CONVENTION

An Important Meeting of Lumbermen to Be Held in St. Louis Next Week.

The convention of the Southwestern Manufacturers' Association of Yellow Pine, which begins next Thursday at 10 o'clock at the St. Louis & Lumber Exchange, promises to be the most important meeting of lumbermen that has ever been held in this city. So far reports indicate that the attendance of delegates will be 150 or more, besides a number of visitors, making it by far the largest attended meeting of the kind ever held here. The Lindell Hotel has been selected as the headquarters for the delegation and most of the visitors will stop at the same place. The session, will last a couple of days, as there is considerable busiat the same place. The session, will last a couple of days, as there is considerable business to attend to. Jack P. Richardson, Louis Werner and W. S. Barnes, the latter editor of the St. Louis Lumberman, have been appointed by the Lumber Exchange to have charge of the transportation of the delegates and to also provide for their entertainment during their stay. Among other features the and to also provide for their entertainment during their stay. Among other features the committee have provided for a banquet, a carriage drive through the parks and to other points of interest in the city, to wind up with a visit to the Exposition, among the chief features of the convention will be the a visit to the Exposition. Among the chief features of the convention will be the preparation of statistics as the output of the product. As it is a notorious fact that for too long a time the trade has suffered from the want of a uniform system of classification of goods. This will be considered and some satisfactory plan will be decided on. Another special point of attention will be to consider the question of increasing the cost of lumber at points of manufacturers. It is expected that the convention will advance prices from 75 cents to $1.50 per thousand. Prices are now practically as low at the mills as they were a year ago, and manufacturers complain that margins are altogether too small. In the past few years yellow pine has made wonderful strides, and now ranks among the most popular lumber of the country. It is now a very strong competitor with white pine, and has in the West and South made a very big reduction in the sale of white pine.

9:80 a.m.—Rack Island net receipts for the year ended March 31, 1890, included interest received from the C., K. & N., to the amount of 11,029,640. When the Western lines were built and the bonds sold, it was stated by an officer of the company that the issue of bonds was made large enough to provide for two years' interest payments. The natural query is whether the receipts from the Western division were not composed in part of the mency so provided? Should this be the case, it would be of some importance, inasmuch as the two years are now up and the Western lines will be obliged to earn their own interest or Secure advances from the Rock Island, Pad a surplus of $49,550. Were the Rock Island paid in dividends last year $1,846,228 and had a surplus of $49,550. Were the Rock Island obliged to provide for money interest on Western division bonds it would impair the dividend earnings materially. No separate statements of the operations of Eastern and Western dividends are given. The extension bonds have lately been falling.

TWO BROTHERS MURDERED.

A Crosy Man's Suicide-Killed by a Train -Illinois Items.

CENTRALIA, Sept. 4 .- W. S. Payne, a young man living here, quarreled with another young man named Fitzgerald over a woman. Payne flew into a rage and shot Fitzgera through the head. Fitzgerald's brother was killed by another man in the same manner en years ago. The Grand-jury has just indicted the other man, named Earle, and now both of them must stand trial for murdering the twe brethers.

OHIGAGO, Sept. 4.—Wm. Seigert was sunstruck about six weeks age and has been showing signs of insanity ever since. Yesterday he got drunk, bought a pistol and literally terrorized the neighborhood near Grore Park where he lived. The pelice were summoned, and as the wagen drove up to the sidewalk near where he was standing there was asharp report and Seigert fell on the sidewalk dead.

ALTON, Sept. 4.—Joseph Linaham, a farmer, was killed yesterday by a train.

HE WANTS SUGGESTIONS.

COMMISSIONER KLEMM SOLICITS IDEAS FOR THE POREST PARK LAKE.

What the Plan Under Consideration Con templates—Some of the Money Alread; Promised and More in Sight—Maj. Murphy's Chances—The Carondelet Cup Con

There is a chance now open to the city and he citizens which does not often present itself and which many think should be taken advantage of without delay. Park Commissioner Klemm and Mr. George D. Capen of the Lindell Railway have been considering the matter very seriously for some time past, but have not yet come to any decision, because the resources are not known. The plant is to add to the many attractions of Forest Park a big lake on which regattas could be held and which would afford the general people an opportunity for boating such as they do not now possess. The plan was first suggested by Mr. Capen when he decided to build his $25,000 depot at the terminus of his road in the pay $25,000 toward the making of such a large lake when the city procured the rest of the money and went ahead with the work.

races can be had and which will be of such dipeople of this city who during the ummer months go twenty or thirty miles for a glimpse of fresh water and the cooling hades which the mighty Mississippi does not afford hereabouts. Mr. Klemm, the Park has gone to work on that portion of the road lying directly south of Chouteau arenue and west of the French Markot. A temporary track has been laid from a point south of the market, around it on the Fourth street side and back to Broadway, north of the building. The old tracks have been taken up and the work is well under way. This settles the question of right of way at that point, the Board, at the last moment, telling the road to build its tracks half way between the market-house and the west side of Broadway. Between Elm street and Franklin avenue the contractors are doing their best to finish the work so as to have the street clear when the Exposition gets well under way.

Maj. Murphy is anxiously waiting for tw things which have a most decided bearing on missioner. One is the recovery of Mr. Phil Rohan and the other the return of President Walbridge of the Council. With these two he stands a chance of being confirmed. With the whole Council the vote is figured as follows by those who are well posted: For confirmation, Bensick, Comfort, Ganahl, Hoolan, Rohan, Sloan and Walbridge-7. For rejection, Cole, Horton, Meier, Metcaif, Neison and Vogei-6. As it is now Mr. Rohan is not well enough to attend and Mr. Walbridge has not yet returned from his summer trip. The name may be brought up to-morrow nght, but of that there is some doubt expressed. missioner. One is the recovery of Mr. Phil

The Only Way.

The employes of the Park Department are indignant because of the objections raised concerning the new cup fastened by a log chain to the rocks in Carondelet Park. The party jumped on Chicago, Burlington & Quincy and sold it down to 100. "Could not a lighter chain be made to answer the purpose?"

'No, it could not. The only man who ever solved that cup problem was Henry Shaw."

'How did he do it?"

"How did he do it?"

"He simply put an old flower pot at the pump. One no one would steal. When they wanted to drink they had to put their finger on the hole in the bottom."

Some citizen of a sarcastic turn of mind has sent the Park Commissioner a huge gobiet of imitation silver and gold with the request that it be placed at the Carondelet Park spring.

The Merchants' Terminal.

The Merchants' Terminal Railway is rapidly being pushed forward to completion. More men are now engaged on its construction than at any time since its start. The elevated section is now in the hands of workmen, and from there along its northern way a big force is at work. In all, on this side and at venice, more than 200 hands are employed. It is understood to-day from reliable sources that the surveys for the North End freight yards have already been made and that the yards will be located in the neighborhood of Second and Mulianphy streets.

He is desirous of getting the opinion of the general public on the subject, and with that object in view he requests that all citizens who are interested in the improvement of Forest Park who have any ideas on the subject will write them down and send them to his office at the City Hail. Location, manner of construction, size, length, breadth and depth are all points to be considered, and the uses to which the lake can afterwards be put will all be of value in the making of the plans. That St. Louis will have this lake sooner or later is an undisputed fact, and there is no reason why it should not as well be now as ten or a dozen years later. Some rough estimates have been made, and the opinion is now that a lake a mile or a little over in length and two or three hundred yards in width can be made at the cost of about $100,000. SAW THE SCUFFLING.

Mrs. Pauline Ticker, living on the second floor of 1831 Frankin avenue, said she heard some one shouting at 2 o'clock yesterday morning and on looking out of her window saw three men fighting. Two of them were negroes, and the other was an aged white man. She says the scuffling soon stopped and the two colored men ran away. She says she did not know what became of the old-man, but she thought he also ran away.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pautison also claim to have heard the fight going on beneath their window, but thought nothing of it; as fight are not uncommon in that neighborhood at night.

Two negroes, Henry Anderson and Charles Morris, were arrested on the street near the scene of the murder a few hours after, and were locked up in the Third District Station until yesterday afternoon, when they were released, as nothing could be found sgainst them to warrant their detention any longer.

PATRICK'S MURDER.

The first murder of this kind, this week, was that of Arthur J. Patrick, who was kicked in the side about August I, on Pine street, near Teath. He would not tell his landlady who kicked him, though three of his ribs were broken. He was unable to move August 5, four days after the assault, and was sent to the City Hospital, where he died of his ribs were broken. A gunnyeack was thrown over his head and he was dragged out and the sack was made fast by a rope to the pommel of the saddle of one of the party and he was dragged through the woeds a distance of a mile, the horse roing at a fast gallop. After amusing themselves in this manner until they were tired the White Caps stripped Smith naked and fastened him to the ground by means of forked sticks, his arms and legs extended, and beat him mercilessly with willows. He was left unconscious and bleeding, and when found yesterday was unable to speak or move. He was removed to a neighbor's house and medical aid summend, has it is doubtful if he will survive. He is about 65 years of age, and the only objection which the White Caps had to him was that he had proposed to a widow of 45 who lives in the neighborhead.

He indignantly denies that the slightest improprieties have ever existed between himself and Mrs. Parker and ciaims that Parker, who is largely in his debt, has been trying to blackmail him. Parker will be arrested, charged with an attempt to kill, and the details of the unsavory scandal will then be fully ventilated.

A Rejected Suitor's Murderous Revenge. GLEN FALLS, N. Y., Sept. 4.-Frederick Collett was assassinated near Ferrisburg, Vt., Sunday evening, by Alphonse Shackel, who crept up to Collett's house and without warncrept up to collect's necessaria without warring emptied the contents of a shotgun into Collett's head. Shackel was arrested shortly after, and his examination began vesterday. Shackel was a rejected suitor of Mrs. Collett, and he swore vengeance against Collett, who successfully wooed the lady.

SEQUEL TO A CHARMING ROMANCE Wedding of Edwards P. Alvarez Cerice and Maria de Les Angeles Yzenaga Y. Garcia, NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—The sequel of a charm-

g romance in real life was witnessed at the City Hall yesterday afternoon in the wedding of Edwardo P. Alvarez Ceriot and Miss Maria de Los Angeles Yzenaga Y. Garcia. The bridegroom and the bride are both natives of Cuba, and the families of both hold the high-pretty girl 29 years old, was attired in a steel gray slik dress with a bonnet to match, and she wore handsome diamond cramments. After the ceremony the bridal party returned to the Hotel Wagner, where the afterneon was spent in preparing for the religious ceremony at night. This took place at 8 o'clock in the Roman Catholic Church of St. Francis Xavier, the officiating priest being Rev. N. McKinnon. Only the families and a few intimate friends of the bridal couple were present. The bride wore at the church an elaborate dress of white slik and there were orange blossoms in her hair. At the end of the ceremony the newly wedded couple and their friends returned to the Hotel Wagner, where a wedding supper was served. The couple will start on a bridal tour for Cuba next Saturday, going to Florida by rail and thence by steamer. Jose Maria Yzenaga, the bride's father, is a brother to Ferdinando Yzenaga. Jose Yzenaga was one of the leading men of Cuba and his exile was the result of the powerful hold he had secured upon the affections of Cubas who appeared to subscribe to his views, which were not always in accord with those of the Government. The Government dared not confiscate his estates. He realized a great fortuse from the sale of his-plantations. The wedding of his daughter to Mr. Advarez Cerice will live on the former's catates at Cardenas.

ST. LOUIS QUOTATIONS.

SUBSTITUTION OF THE MARKETS OF THIS CITY FOR CHICAGO AND NEW YORK.

n That Has Taken Place With in the Last Two Months-Remarkabl Increase in the Demand for St. Louis Quotations on Wheat and Corn-Causes which trading was based throughout the West, and little was RC known of the prices set by the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange. The order of the directors of the Chicago Board of Trade put ting a stop to the issue of official quotations had the effect of causing the Exchange, which had been in the habit of receiving their reports from that city, to look about for another NEW YORK AND CHICAGO. t first many attempted to use non-officia Chicago quotations, and others relied upon New York for news. A large minority, however, if not an actual majority, made arrangeents to obtain the St. Louis market, which was substituted for that previously furnished by Chicago. This experiment was adopted with a great deal of anxiety, and its fallure was confidently predicted by many, who did not believe that any market west of the Mississippi could govern the Southern and Northwestern exchanges, and it was asserted that the losses incident to the introduction of St. Louis quotations would soon cause them to be given up. This city had a reputation as a bear market which was highly disadvantageous to it, among the exchanges in the farming districts, an the exchanges in the farming districts, and the promises of Chicago brokers that the markets would be furnished as regularly as ever, with but a slight delay, caused many to adhere to their customers. It was alleged that St. Louis had always been a follower of Chicago as regards the prices of wheat and corn, and it was argued that it would be better to be governed by iChicago quotations, even if they lacked the official stamp, than to receive practically the same quotations through St. Louis. The same style of reasoning was adopted by the exchanges that received the New York market. In this manner St. Louis was at first kept somewhat in the background.

adopted by the exchanges that received the New York market. In this manner St. Louis was at first kept somewhat in the background.

St. Louis LEADS THE COUNTRY.

This cendition of affairs, however, did not long continue. As is weil known at the commencement of the rold rise in wheat and eors St. Louis took the mad, which was maintained until the highest point was reached. Chicago for a time opposed the advance and those that followed its lead took up the bear interest. The course of New York and its following was similar, although to a smaller extent. The consequence, was that members of the exchanges that received St. Louis quotations profited greatly by the advance, and that those who relied on Chicago and New York lost heavily; another result was to establish the fact that this city could not independently, and to effectually prove that St. Louis was not a bear market. When the fall in wheat occurred St. Louis was again in the lead, and the rest of the country followed.

A BEMARKABLE CHANGE.

A REMARKABLE CHANGE.

These events have had an immense influence on the smaller exchanges and on brokers and bucketshop proprietors in other cities. As a result the St. Louis quotations have, within the last month, been generally substituted for those of New York and Chicago, orders are being daily received to send the St. Louis markets to places that have never before received them, and this market is now acknowledged to be the leading one of the West. An important indirect effect is that the shipments to St. Louis have been increased and those to Chiindirect effect is that the shipments to St. Louis have been increased and those to Chicago cerrespondingly lessened. The greatest loss has been suffered by the Chicago commission men, whose patrons by hundreds have transferred their business to St. Louis. So serious has this depletion been that several petitions have been drawn up asking that the publication of the Chicago quotations be again resumed, but the St. Louis grain desiers believe that they have so fairly established themselves that they need fear nothing.

A DOUBLE SHOOTING AFFRAY.

ATLANTIC CITY. N. J., Sept. 4 .- A double shooting affray that may prove fatal in one case occurred at 1:30 o'clock this morning, Joseph F. Young of Philadelphia, shot his wife at the Minnequa Hotel on Pacific avenue, below Arkansas. He then placed the revolver to his own head, but the wound is only slight. He made a second attempt on his only slight. He made a second attempt on his life, but Chief of Police Eldredge reaching the access was just in time to throw up the suicide's hand. County Physician Reilly has grave doubts this morning about Aira. Young's recovery. The cause of the double tragedy was alleged intimacy between Mrs. Young and one W. Ogden of Morton, Delaware County, who was stopping at the same hotel. Mr. Young claims to have been informed yesterday by his Philadelphia friends of the undue intimacy between Ogden and Mrs. Young and so came to Atlantic City last syening to ascertain the frust of his suspicions. Young is locked up awaiting the reaction that the countying the same cell used by Mrs. Robert Ray Hamilton last fall. games at Birmingham, England, in 1881, the young athlete was pitted against the best men in England, and defeated them in both the running high and running broad jumps. In the former his record was 6 ft. 1 in., in the latter 22 ft. 11 in. As a commentary upon the mettle of the men Davin vanquished it may be added that in the running broad jumps five of the centestants cleared over 22 ft.

For nine years, and up to 1883, J. Lane's record of 22 feet 1½ inch for the running broad jump had successfully stood the assaults of all amateur athletes. At Port Arlington, Sept. 15, the doughty Davin tackied the long unbroken record and smashed it by clearing 23 feet 2 inches. This still stands an the best English record. In 1885 Davin crowned his victories by a chaplet well worth the winning when he captlet well worth the winning when he captlete are the fellowing: Running broad jump, 28 feet 2 inches; running high jump, 6 feet 14 23 feet 2 inches; running high jump, 6 feet 14, Inches; 100-yard run, 102-5s.; 120-yard hurdle (3 feet 6 inches high), 16 2-5s.; throwing 16-pound hummor (3 feet 6 inches handle from 20 foot scratch line), 90 feet; pushing 28-pound shot from a stand with a follow, 30 feet; putting 16 pound shet, 38 ft. 6 in.; throwing 36 pound weight between legs with a follow, 25 ft. 9 in. Malcolm W., Ford, the famous American athlete, whose judgment in such matters is hardly to be questioned, is authority for the statement that with the possible exception of L. E. Myers "no athlete ever lived who struck such terror to the hearts of others when he appeared on the field" as Patrick Davis, the Irish champion.

awimming race took Diace yesterday afternoon off Coney Island. There were a dozen entries, but only seven young women and girls started from the Lorretta S., Capt. John Yan Wart, the judges' sloop, at a point about opposite the music pavilion of the Brighton Bench Hotel. The finishing line was opposite Doyle's bathing pavilion at West Brighton, a distance of about a mile.

The word 'go' was given at 4:36:30 p. m.,
Misses Alice Ward, Leo Broughton, Nina
Morsy, Lydia Benney, Josie Brown, Blanche Koester and Alma Koester gracefully taking the water together. A few minutes after the start it was evident that the race was really between Miss Ward and Miss Brown, with the rest nowhere. Miss Brown, who is only 18 years old, led from the start to the threequarter mile point, when she was taken from the water in an exhausted condition, and Miss Ward, a daughter of Dr. John Ward of Brooklyn, finished slone.

Miss Ward is 19 years of age and has now won the championship three years in succession. The time was 16½m. with the tide, Miss Brown received the second prize, a silver medal, and Miss Ward received the first prize, a gold medal. The judges were Messrs. C. C.
Overton, W. B. Green and J. H. Vallette.

Firenzi's Victory.

New York, Sept. 4.—The Twin City Handicap at Sheepshead Bay yesterday was won by Firenzi in 2:07. Tournament finishing a close second and Eurus third, while Los Angeles, Badge, Senerita, Come-to-Taw and Rigpah were beaten off. Firenzi carries 128 pounds and was ridden by Garrison, and Tournament had up 114 pounds. Jockey Martin Bergen, who had the mount on Neily Bly, the favorite in the Sapphire Stakes for 2-year-olds, returned to start when the fing fell, claiming the flily's head was surped the wrong way. When Starter Caidwell denied this Bargen contradicted him and was suspended for the balance of the meeting.

Sixts race, Turf Handlesp, one mile and a quarter on the turf—Philosophy won, Lavinia Belle, second; Masterlode, third. Time, Larry Kavanagh has arranged another fine day's racing for next funday at Bretherhood Park. There will be trotting, a pacing, a run-ning and a mule race, all of mile heats. Per-has the most interesting race of the day will be the trot between Tom Payne and Blut Bill. Much rivalry exists between the owner of these horses, and a great deal of measy will change hands on the result.

GLOUCESTER, N. J., Sept. 3.—The races here yesterday resulted as follows:
First race, seven-eighths of a mile—Lady Pulsifer, first; Bradford, second; Eatontowa, Second race, mile—Sophist, first; Judge Neison, second; Bill Dee, third. Time, 1:40%. Third race, three-quarters of a mile—Sea Bird, first; Umpire Kelly, second; Little Fred, third. Time, 1:20%. Fourth race, mile—Ofalece, first; Glendale, second; Larchmont, third. Time, 1:48.

Each Season

Has its own pscullar malady; but with the blood maintained in a state of uniform vigor and purity, by the use of Ager's Sarsaparilla, the system readily adapts itself to changed conditions. Composed of the best alteratives and tonics, and being highly concentrated, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the most effective and economical of all blood medicines.

"For some years, at the return of spring, I had serious trouble with my kidneys. I was unable to sleep nights, and suffered greatly with pains in the small of my back. I was also afflicted with headachs, loss of appetite, and indigection. These tymptoms were much worse last spring, est cially the trouble with my back. A friend persuaded me to use Ayer's Sarsaparills. I began taking it, and my troubles all disappeared."

— Mrs. Genevra Belanger, 24 Bridge st., Springfield, Mass.
